TWENTIETH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

HOME FOR AGED MEN,

JANUARY, 1881.

THE Record of our Home during the past year may be read with entire satisfaction by all the friends of the Institution. Nothing has happened to disturb the pleasant relations of the various members of the household, and, as heretofore, it has been found possible to allow a large measure of individual freedom without interrupting the necessary order of the Home. Each one of the inmates, besides sharing the common life of the family, is at liberty to live a life of his own, week days and Sundays.

We have, indeed, but one pressing want. If it could be supplied, as doubtless it sometime will be, each member of our family might be even more free than now to indulge his individual tastes, and still have his part and lot in the common Home.

We need a much larger provision of single rooms. We can have them by adding another story to our House, unless there is some better way. Will our friends think of this and of the simple luxury of one's own chamber?

Our Matron reports that there has been very little sickness, and that the year has been a very quiet and pleasant one.

At the beginning of the twelvemonth there were thirty-six inmates. Of this number Mr. Wm. Morton

Jackson, admitted 21 October, 1872, at the age of 70, died January 22nd; and Mr. Andrew Gorham, admitted 20 October, 1879, at the age of 77, died April 2nd. Mr. William Hayden, who was at one time Post-Master of Boston, and was admitted as an outside beneficiary 20 January, 1873, died October 6th, at a very advanced age. James C. Gifford died about the time when he would have received aid. Ebenezer Kenfield died March 11, aged 84. John A. Spear died 28th June.

Messrs. Samuel S. Champion and Austin Bearse have been admitted to the Home; whilst Messrs. Ebenezer Kenfield, James C. Gifford, Ignatius S. Winter, Martin Russell and Theodore Janes are to receive outside aid.

The year began with thirty-one outside beneficiaries. Of these five have been removed by death, and one has been admitted to the Home. We have added six new names, so that the present number is thirty-one. Our present number of inmates is thirty-six.

We have to record, with sincere regret, the removal by death of our President, Mr. Peter C. Brooks, the faithful friend and benefactor of this Home from the beginning. The resolutions passed by the Board of Directors on the occasion will be found appended to this Report.

As will appear from the report of our Treasurer, the year has been rich in bequests and donations in sums ranging from five hundred to five thousand dollars. We trust that our friends will not fail to turn to the financial statement; they will find names and suggestions of names as dear as they are familiar, and will see that if we ever knew any day of small things we have quickly and happily outlived it.

The sum of five thousand dollars has been paid into our Treasury as a compromise under the will of Ezra G. Perkins.

"Packages are often left at the Home anonymously, in some instances the messages accompanying them being so rapidly or indistinctly delivered as not to be understood. If all our friends and patrons are not included among our benefactors in the list attached to this Report, this will explain the omission."

Our thanks are due to the many kind friends who have generously sent us such an abundant supply of fruit, flowers and vegetables, in their season; also, for the quantity of useful clothing, together with much valuable reading matter for the reading room. And we must not fail to mention the kindness of Mr. J. F. Rogers, who has called in his own carriage so many times and taken the old gentlemen for pleasant drives, and the continued generosity of Mr. G. M. King, in the same direction.

Rev. Photius Fiske has been very kind in sending to our inmates all the fruits of the season, as well as many delicacies for the sick. The old people enjoyed a sumptuous breakfast and dinner Thanksgiving Day, from the interest of the money left by our late President for this purpose.

Christmas was made bright and pleasant by our kind friend from West Roxbury, with her children and grandchildren, calling to wish one and all a merry Christmas, and making their hearts glad with her gifts of fruit and flowers, a very agreeable experience for them. We are pleased again to mention the regular gifts of flowers by the ladies of the Shawmut Universalist Flower Mission and Hollis Street Mission.

Thanks should be expressed to Drs. W. Ingalls and J. W. Cushing for their services, when needed during the illness of our physician this autumn; also to Dr. G. C. Ainsworth for dental services at various times.

Our obligations are due to Rev. Chandler Robbins, D.D., to Rev. William S. Studley, and to Rev. William P. Tilden, who have held services through the summer at the Home on Sundays; also to members of the Sunday School of Rev. Mr. Tilden's church, and to other friends, who have assisted in the singing upon these occasions.

As in years past, we would gratefully acknowledge the kind offices of our associate, Dr. Charles D. Homans, and we are glad to learn that he is recovering from the severe accident of the summer. Our Clerk must allow us to record our great obligations to him, as also, to our Superintendent, whose capacity and fidelity leave us nothing to be desired. Encouraged by such abundant success, we commend our Home to the care and love of the Providence which has never failed us, and to the benevolence of a community which is so prompt to recognize a real charity.

CORPORATION BY-LAWS.

Membership.

ARTICLE I. The Corporation shall consist of the persons named in the Act of Incorporation; of all persons who have been or may be Directors; and of such persons as shall give to the Corporation, at any one time, one hundred dollars or upwards, or who, at any meeting of the Corporation may be elected a member by ballot.

Officers.

ART. II. The officers of the Corporation, under the name of Directors, shall consist of a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, Clerk, and twelve other members. They shall be chosen by ballot at each Annual Meeting, and shall hold their offices for one year, and until others are chosen and qualified in their stead. Two of the Directors shall be chosen at the Annual Meeting to audit the Treasurer's Account for the ensuing year.

Annual Meeting.

ART. III. The Annual Meeting of the Corporation shall be held on the second Monday of January, in every year, at such place and hour as the Directors may order, and notice of said meeting shall be given, by publishing the same in one or more newspapers in the City of Boston, three days at least before said meeting. The Directors may call Special Meetings of the Corporation whenever in their opinion it is expedient and shall do so upon the request in writing of five members of the Corporation.

Home and Beneficiaries.

ART. IV. A suitable building or buildings, to be known as the Home for Aged Men, shall be provided for the reception of respectable aged and indigent men not otherwise provided for, into which may be admitted such persons, coming under the above designation.

as the Directors shall from time to time determine, upon such terms and conditions as they may deem proper and expedient. The Directors may, if they deem it expedient, aid beneficiaries at their own homes.

Directors' Meetings.

ART. V. Meetings of the Directors shall be held on the third Monday of January, April, July, and October, in each year, at such place and hour as they shall determine, and Special Meetings shall be called by the Clerk at any time upon the written order of the President, or upon that of any three Directors.

Seven members present at any meeting shall constitute a quorum. The Directors are authorized to fill for the remainder of the current year, vacancies in any of the offices provided for in Article II.

Presiding Officer.

ART. VI. The President shall preside at the meetings when present, in his absence a Vice-President or senior member of the Board present, shall preside.

Treasurer.

ART. VII. The Treasurer shall have the custody of all moneys, bonds, deeds and securities, belonging to the Corporation, which he shall keep, manage and invest, under the direction and control of the Board of Directors, or their committee appointed for the purpose. He shall pay no money but upon the order of the Board of Directors, or of their committee duly authorized. At the Annual Meeting, he shall render a statement in detail, of his receipts and disbursements made up to the 31st day of December, inclusive in each year, with a statement of the property belonging to the Corporation, and shall at any time give such information in regard to the property in his possession as may be requested by the Directors.

He shall record in a book kept for the purpose, abstracts of the wills of persons deceased, so far as they relate to bequests to the "Home for Aged Men."

Clerk.

ART. VIII. The Clerk shall notify and attend all meetings of the Corporation, of the Directors and Executive Committee, and shall keep a record of the doings of each, with the names of the members present, and shall notify the members of the Visiting Committee of their term of service.

Directors.

ART. IX. The Directors shall have the entire charge of the Home and of the general business and property of the Corporation, and of the admission and discharge of inmates. They may perform the duties required of them by Committees chosen from their own number; and, during the intervals of their meetings, may act by an Executive Committee. They shall have the power to enter into and bind the Corporation by such contracts as they may deem advantageous; they may appoint all proper and necessary officers, assistants, and servants for the management and care of the Home and beneficiaries, with such salaries and allowances as they may, from time to time, fix and determine, and may remove the same at pleasure; and make all such rules and regulations for their own government, and for the government of such officers, assistants, and servants, for the admission, confirmation, discharge, removal, control and care of inmates, and the well ordering and conducting of the respective departments of the Home, as to them may seem proper and expedient; provided, however, that the said rules and regulations may be altered or amended by the Corporation at their Annual Meeting, or at any legal meeting especially called for the purpose. They shall manage, invest and dispose of the property of the Corporation, and shall receive and collect donations and bequests, but no sale or transfer of any of the property, and no payment of money from the treasury, shall be made without their order, or that of a Committee duly authorized by them.

They shall cause a complete record of all their doings to be kept, which shall be laid before the Corporation whenever required, and, at every Annual Meeting they shall make a written report on the Treasurer's Accounts and on the general state of the Home,—comprising a statement of the number of inmates and beneficiaries at the commencement of the year; number admitted, died, left or discharged, and the number remaining; with an account of the receipts and expenditures of each department; and for this purpose they shall, at a previous meeting, appoint a Committee of their own number.

Donations and Bequests.

ART. X. All sums received by the Corporation as donations or bequests, unless the donor or testator shall otherwise prescribe, and all collections including annual and other subscriptions, may be applied to the current expenses of the Corporation, or to increase the permanent fund, at the discretion of the Directors.

Amendments.

ART. XI. Any amendment of these By-Laws, proposed at a meeting of the Corporation, may be adopted at a subsequent meeting, and not otherwise.

DIRECTORS' BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I. Meetings of the Directors shall be held on the third Monday of January, April, July and October in each year, at such hour as they may determine. Seven members shall constitute a quorum for business.

Order of Business.

ART. II. The first business in order shall be the reading of the records of the previous meeting. Reports of Committees shall be next in order, and thereafter any other business may come before the Board.

Standing Committees, Superintendent and Physician.

ART. III. At the first meeting after the annual meeting, the following-named Standing Committees shall be elected: namely, an Executive Committee, a Committee on Admission, on Finance, on Religious Services, and such other Committees as the Board may deem expedient. A Superintendent and a Physician, shall be elected at this meeting.

Chairman and Reports of Committees.

ART. IV. The first-named member on a Committee shall be Chairman, and reports of Committees shall be submitted in writing.

Executive Committee.

ART. V. The Executive Committee shall have the general charge of the affairs of the Home, except as otherwise provided herein, during the interval between the regular quarterly meetings of the Directors, and act in their behalf. They shall meet at the Home on the first Monday of every month, and some one of them shall visit it at least once a week. They shall keep a record of their proceedings, which shall be laid before the Directors at their quarterly meetings.

They shall make or authorize all purchases for the Home, and shall examine and approve all bills before payment by the Treasurer.

Committee on Admission.

ART. VI. The Committee on Admission shall visit or confer with each applicant for admission or relief, inquire into his circumstances and character, and make a full report of all the material facts in each case. The Directors alone shall decide upon the admission or relief of applicants. The Committee shall keep a register, in which shall be entered the names of applicants; their respective ages; place of birth and residence; by whom recommended; date of application, the decision of the Directors thereon, and such other facts as they may deem important; and they shall assign to inmates their rooms.

Finance Committee.

ART. VII. The Finance Committee shall have the general charge and direction of all matters connected with the money, mortgages and other securities belonging to the Home, and shall direct the Treasurer in the disposition of the same.

Committee on Religious Services.

ART. VIII. The Committee on Religious Services shall, as often as practicable, supply the Home with preaching on Sundays. They shall make such regulations in regard to the same, and to other Religious services as they may deem expedient.

Superintendent.

ART. IX. The Superintendent, under the direction of the Executive Committee, shall have charge of the house, and shall strictly obey and enforce the rules and regulations of the Directors. Order, neatness, and good conduct must prevail throughout the Home.

The Superintendent shall have the care of, and be responsible for, all supplies furnished for the use of the family; shall be present at meals, see that they are properly served, that suitable food is provided for the sick, proper order is observed at table, a blessing asked before each meal; and by firmness, kindness, attention, and judicious treatment, endeavor to secure the comfort and happiness of the inmates.

At each monthly meeting of the Executive Committee the Superintendent shall present, in writing, a statement of the supplies required, with a report of the condition of the Home and its inmates, and such other matters as may be important. Improper conduct of any of the inmates shall be reported to the Executive Committee.

The Superintendent shall keep a book in which shall be recorded a list of the furniture, linen and other articles belonging to the Home, which list shall be corrected annually in the month of December, and laid before the Corporation at its annual meeting in January.

Presents, other than money, shall be entered with the name of the donor in a book kept for the purpose by the Superintendent.

Beneficiaries.

ART. X. SECT. 1. Every applicant must furnish satisfactory testimonials of the respectability of his character, and freely communicate all facts necessary to a proper understanding of his case.

SECT. 2. In no case whatever, shall any person be placed on the list of beneficiaries but those who are natives of the United States of America, are at least fifty-five years of age, and have resided in Boston during the ten years next preceding their application for relief, unless by the unanimous vote of all the Directors present; the number present being not less than twelve.

SECT. 3. Each beneficiary when first admitted shall be upon probation for the term of six months. After the expiration of said term, the Directors shall, as they deem expedient, dismiss or confirm the applicant as a permanent inmate of the Home.

SECT. 4. Persons not confirmed as permanent inmates shall be refunded the balance of the admission fee paid by them, after deducting therefrom three dollars per week for the time they have remained in the Home, as a compensation for their board.

SECT. 5. Every inmate must obey the rules and regulations of the Corporation and of the Directors.

SECT. 6. The Directors in all cases reserve the right to dismiss and expel from the Home any inmate who shall violate any of the rules, or whom, from any other cause, they may deem not to be a proper object of this Charity; admissions to the Home not being permanent, but only during the good behavior of the inmates and the pleasure of the Directors. Notice of the intention to dismiss and expel an inmate shall be given in the call for the meeting when such action is to be taken.

SECT. 7. Beneficiaries aided out of the Home, may be stricken from the list, or the amount of relief modified at any time by vote of the Directors.

SECT. 8. The Directors shall, from time to time, fix the terms of admission to the Home. Unless otherwise ordered, one hundred and fifty dollars shall be the fee for admission in each case.

SECT. 9. Furniture and other articles brought into the Home, by or for permanent inmates, must remain for the benefit and use of the Home. Beneficiaries who have property must secure the same to the Corporation before admission, and in case of money or other property coming into their possession after their admission by inheritance, bequest, or otherwise, if they continue as an inmate of the Home, they must make the same over to the Corporation upon the demand of the Directors.

SECT. 10 Any inmate desirous, for any cause, to leave the Home, is at liberty to depart. Should he leave within six months from his admission as a permanent inmate, the entrance-money which has been paid on his account shall be returned, after deducting a reasonable amount for his support while in the Home. Should he have made over any property to the Corporation, the said property, or the amount of the proceeds of the same, shall be paid to him, after deducting his board for the time he has been in the Home; but, after once leaving, he cannot return as an inmate, unless by vote of the Directors.

Amendments.

ART. XI. These By-laws may be altered or amended at any legal meeting of the Directors, provided that in the notices calling said meeting, it shall have been stated that an alteration or amendment is to be made.

HOUSE RULES.

1. The entire care of the house shall be in charge of the Superintendent, under the direction of the Executive Committee.

2. The Superintendent shall strictly obey and enforce the rules, and by firmness, kindness, attention, and judicious treatment, endeavor to secure the comfort and happiness of the inmates; who, on their part, shall pay strict obedience to all rules and regulations, and treat the Directors, Visitors, Superintendents, Assistants, and each other with becoming respect; and by gentlemanly conduct at all times, and by acts of courtesy and forbearance, endeavor to make a happy household.

3. Every inmate, except in case of sickness, is expected to attend all religious services.

4. Breakfast at seven o'clock, from April 1 to October 1, and at eight o'clock from October 1 to April 1; dinner at one o'clock; tea at six o'clock from April 1 to October 1, and at five o'clock from October 1 to April 1.

5. A general table will be provided for the inmates at which all who are able must attend punctually, and endeavor, by order and genial intercourse, to make such occasions seasons of agreeable recreation.

6. The Superintendent will preside at the table, and ask a blessing before each meal.

7. Those confined to their rooms by illness will be furnished with sick-diet, under the direction of the Physician and the Superintendent.

8. Washing and ironing shall, if practicable, be done on Mondays and Tuesdays.

9. All that is necessary for the comfortable support of the inmates will be provided by the Corporation. No inmate therefore will be permitted to solicit assistance for himself or others, unless by special permit of the Executive Committee.

10. Every inmate must make himself useful in any way that his services may be available for the benefit of the Home, at the discretion of the Superintendent.

11. No intoxicating drinks or strong stimulant shall be used in the house, except by order of the Physician; when it shall be administered by the Superintendent or Nurse.

12. No tobacco smoking will be allowed in the house.

13. Inmates will not be allowed to enter the kitchen, store-room, or other offices of the house, unless by consent of the Superintendent; and they are also expected to pay a due regard to the privacy of each other's rooms.

14. No inmate will be permitted to interfere with or find fault with the assistants, or servants. If they have cause for complaint they must, in the first place, state their grievance to the Superintendent; if not remedied, they can appeal to either of the Directors.

15. The assistants and servants will at all times be required to treat the inmates with becoming kindness, forbearance, and respect; to be courteous to all visitors, and strictly comply with the rules of the house.

16. No inmate, or person employed in the house, will be permitted to be out after ten o'clock, P. M., at which hour the doors will be closed for the night.

17. The Superintendent must see that all unnecessary fires and lights are extinguished by ten o'clock at night.

18. Inmates should make it known to the Superintendent when they are going out.

19. Any one desiring to visit his friends must obtain leave of the Superintendent, whom he shall inform of the place where he intends to stay, and the probable length of his visit. The time of making visits, as well as their frequency, is left to the discretion of the Superintendent.

20. The friends of inmates, and the public generally, may visit the house only on Wednesdays and Saturdays, from nine to eleven o'clock, A. M., and from three to five, P. M., unless by a permit from one of the Directors.

21. To preserve order and harmony in the family, entire obedience must be paid to all the rules and regulations adopted for the government of the Home. It shall be the duty of the Superintendent to admonish the inmates for any violation of the same, and if repeated, the Superintendent shall prefer a complaint to the Executive Committee to take such action as they may deem expedient. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be necessary to the validity of a vote of removal by the Directors.

22. Inmates earning money must pay the same to the Executive Committee at their next succeeding meeting, to be expended for the special use and benefit of the party earning the same, at the discretion of the Committee.

23. These rules may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Directors.

FORM OF BOND.

I, the undersigned, in consideration of having become a beneficiary or inmate of the Home for Aged Men, do hereby agree to obey the rules and regulations adopted by the Directors, and my right to remain in the Home shall depend upon such obedience; and I do hereby sell and make over to the Corporation all such personal property as I have brought to the Home, and agree that all property which I shall bring to the Home for my use shall then become the property of said Corporation, and for the consideration aforesaid, I do hereby sell and convey to said Corporation any property, both real and personal which I now have, and hereby agree to sell and convey to said Corporation all property, both real and personal, which I now or may hereafter own and to execute all papers, and to do all things necessary to transfer and convey said property to said Corporation, in trust nevertheless for the following purposes: to sell, convey and dispose of the same or such parts thereof as may be necessary, and apply sufficient of the proceeds of the sale thereof to pay said Corporation all that it may have paid or spent on my account, and reimburse itself for the board and supplies furnished to me, and to invest the balance of said proceeds, and hold the same and interest thereon as security for what sums may be spent or supplies furnished to me or on my account, and upon my death to pay and convey the balance of said trust funds, over and above what is sufficient to reimburse said Corporation for all that has been paid for me and on my account, to such parties as I shall by will direct or to my legal representatives.

APPENDIX.

RESOLVE UPON THE DEATH OF THE LATE PETER C. BROOKS.

Resolved, That the Directors of the Home for Aged Men desire to express a tender sense of the loss which has come upon their Institution in the death of their Associate and President, PETER C. BROOKS.

His heart was in this work of love. It was one of his pleasures to visit the Home, to spread feasts for its inmates, and in all ways to promote their comfort and advance their interests.

His healthy nature, sound sense, bright look, cheerful word and absolute trustworthiness have made our intercourse helpful and delightful. It has been hard to associate him with the burdens of sickness and of years, and we are glad to believe that he has entered into his rest and is as young outwardly as he was in heart and spirit to the last.

It is our desire and purpose to attend the funeral and take part in the last offices; and we ask our Clerk to put these words upon the record, and to send a copy of them to the widow and kindred of our friend.
